

The Pack family at a New York City church dance in 1987.

Top, all in 1988 in Israel, Mr. Pack reading the newspaper in the Dead Sea. Middle, giving the sermon to the tour group on the same "Mount" above Capernaum and the Sea of Galilee where Jesus spoke. Bottom, Mr. Pack and his brother riding a "wild" camel in Jerusalem.

Top, the pre-9/11 view of downtown Manhattan from Mr. Pack's former 34th-floor midtown office. Middle, in the office with the long-time secretary. Right, spring 1989, the Packs in front of the house they rented (and painted and landscaped in order to make ends meet) while in Westchester County, New York.

Mr. Pack with his parents at the Feast of Tabernacles in 1989 in Daytona Beach, Florida. This picture is one of his absolute favorites, and has been on Mr. Pack's refrigerator for 20 years. The same photo sits in Uncle Frank Crowl's den in California, also one of his favorites.
