Mr. Pack's parents moved to North Carolina in the early 1970s and bought a natural/health food store. The above snapshot was taken soon after purchasing the store.
Decades later, Mr. Pack inherited the store, which, with help from his sons, he expanded by adding a second much larger store on the north side of Greensboro, North Carolina.
Mr. Pack wrote numerous articles during his years with the Global Church of God. He wrote articles about the popular pagan holidays of the world for The World Ahead (above) and the Global Church News (opposite page) sent to all members of the Global Church of God.
Must We Assemble Together Every Sabbath?

Why does God require it? Does it matter with whom you do assemble? Just what should you do?

Which Comes First—TRUTH or LOVE?

The Apostle John taught both. But which one is the foundation for the other?

By David C. Park

I grew up in a large, well-attended church of Christ where we never had to think about who we were. There were millions of “believers” and people who knew us and talked about us. It was so easy to get away from the need to think about God and the need to be a witness for Christ.

Now, here we are in a small church of Christ where the pressure to think about God and our own lives is intense. We are forced to think about God and our own lives, and we are forced to witness for Christ.

The pressure to think about God and our own lives is intense, and we are forced to witness for Christ.

The Role of Truth

Two frequently quoted verses in the Bible come from John, both about love. One is John 15:15. The other is John 13:14-15. “A new commandment I give you, that you love one another, as I have loved you.”

We must do the same thing as John did. We must love one another, as we have been loved. We must do what we have been taught to do, as we have been taught to do it.

The Role of Love

Two frequently quoted verses in the Bible come from John. Both speak about love. One is John 15:15. The other is John 13:14-15. “A new commandment I give you, that you love one another, as I have loved you.”

We must do the same thing as John did. We must love one another, as we have been loved. We must do what we have been taught to do, as we have been taught to do it.

The Role of Truth

Two frequently quoted verses in the Bible come from John, both about love. One is John 15:15. The other is John 13:14-15. “A new commandment I give you, that you love one another, as I have loved you.”

We must do the same thing as John did. We must love one another, as we have been loved. We must do what we have been taught to do, as we have been taught to do it.
In an email sent to a fellow minister, Mr. Pack expressed his concerns regarding the watering down of doctrine and tradition in the pre-split Global. Top is a partial list of topics suggested to be covered in a Council of Elders meeting, with the bottom a cover letter.
A map of the northeastern United States area that Mr. Pack supervised as Regional Pastor in the Global Church of God. Each of eight pastorates is shown with the city that the pastor lived in designated by a black pin. Akron, Ohio, is the red dot near the center.
With sister, Debbie, and brother, Bill, at his brother's home in Bluefield, Virginia, at Thanksgiving in 2002.
Randall and Jane Pack, now an older couple in their final years together, attending a formal dance in the Church.
This is the last formal Pack family portrait. It was taken in the summer of 1994, when both sons were living in Greensboro, North Carolina. Randy is 22 at left, Robby is 20 at right, and Jennifer is 14.