

Mr. Pack prepares to deliver one of the early Ambassador Training Center lectures at Restored Headquarters. His son Rob helped coordinate the filming and production of these lectures, which were sent out on DVD to those enrolled in the program.

Top, reviewing one of the completed office “upfits,” the expanded Business and Accounting Office, with other staff, including his daughter. Bottom, the Pastor General conducts a Real Truth editorial planning meeting with writers and editors.

Top, after months of construction in early 2008, a television studio was completed. Mr. Pack was soon filming new weekly video broadcasts, which covered important topics such as the gospel, the Bible's greatest prophecies, the identity of the true Jesus Christ, the identity of the Church that He built, and many others. Bottom, in 2009, the studio was completely redesigned, with dramatic improvements.

Above, participating in the annual Winter Social by playing Ping-Pong. Top right, enjoying a winter night of games—and in this photo, teasing left-handed people. This winter weekend became an annual event from the first winter in Restored. It allowed brethren to visit Headquarters from afar to enjoy special fellowship.

Above, spring 2008, speaking at the annual Spokesman Club Graduation/Ladies Night, an event that includes a table topics session and speeches. Right, awarding a Spokesman Club graduation certificate to his son-in-law in 2004.

In March 2008, the Headquarters staff toured the original Worldwide Church of God and Ambassador College campus in Pasadena, California. Top, the group is in the Auditorium Lower Level. Bottom, standing in the foyer. Mr. Pack led this special tour, which was filled with helpful, inspiring stories, for those who later attended the reconstitution of God's college now in Ohio—Ambassador Training Center.

Opposite page, top, in a garden and, middle, at the back of Ambassador Hall near the Fine Arts and Science buildings. Bottom, Uncle Frank also took an interest in Ambassador College and the Work of The Restored Church of God. He read every piece of literature produced by the Church.

Top, an April 2009 photo of Mr. and Mrs. Pack with new grandson Jonathan, son of Kevin and Jennifer Denee. Middle (both), Rob's children, Andy and Aimee. Right, six-week-old Jonathan.

Top, four grand-daughters from Mr. Pack's son, Randy. Madeline is in the middle under Sophia, with Emilia to her left and Isabella to her right. Middle, Grandpa Pack holding Sophia in early 2008. Bottom, a more recent photograph of Mr. Pack's now five grand-daughters, with the newest one, Camille, being held by Madeline.

Top, April 2009, with his three children in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, after the funeral of his first mother-in-law, Mrs. Dorothy Ochs. Right, with Rob on the beach in California.

