

Photo taken after the outdoor wedding of (uncle) Dick Crowl (far right) in July 1974 in Hayward, Wisconsin. Frank and Jane Crowl are pictured with Mr. Pack, his wife (and two sons).

After serving as a ministerial assistant, Mr. Pack was ordained a local elder (in Cincinnati, Ohio) in the Worldwide Church of God on September 7, 1975.

Just before receiving his first pastorate, Mr. Pack was raised on May 28, 1977, to the rank of preaching elder, becoming a full minister of Jesus Christ.

Top, family photo taken in early 1975 while in Cincinnati, Ohio. Right, father with sons in summer 1979 in Rochester, New York, (one of Mr. Pack's favorite photos) and, bottom, with sons in the spring of 1978 at the Rochester Lilac Festival.

Top, fishing for perch on Lake Oneida, north of Syracuse, NY, 1979. Bottom, salmon fishing near Buffalo, NY, in 1981.

Top, in a state park outside Ithaca, NY, in fall of 1979. Middle, early 1975 in Cincinnati, Ohio, playing "Big Bear" with sons, and, bottom, with Robby in 1978.

Left, Mr. Pack, his father and both boys vacationing at Jekyll Island, Georgia, Thanksgiving 1980.

Above, Mr. Pack with Uncle Frank in August 1992 in Akron, Ohio.

Above, Peter Ochs with his son-in-law in the late 1970s.

A family portrait of the now five Packs in the summer of 1981.

Interoffice

|         |                    |      |                    |
|---------|--------------------|------|--------------------|
| To      | Mr. David Pack     | Date | 3/9/81             |
| From    | Dexter H. Faulkner | Dept | Editorial Services |
| Subject |                    |      |                    |

Again, I feel compelled to write a note of thanks to you for your continued support of the Work's publications. I know personally that Mr. Herbert Armstrong appreciates the contributions you have made toward making the magazines come alive with valuable and timely articles. As managing editor it is a pleasure to work with such a dedicated team member.

Attached is an article published by the Royal Bank of Canada that I plan to make required reading for my magazine production class. I feel it might be worthy of a few moments of your time.

Please continue to keep up the good work.

Warm regards,

Dexter

Note to Mr. Pack from the editorial manager in March 1981. Mr. Armstrong had appreciated the articles Mr. Pack contributed to The Good News magazine.

Top left, the Pack children in early 1982. Top right, Robby feeding Jenny in the spring of 1981.

Above, Mrs. Pack with her daughter at a Buffalo, New York, church function in the spring of 1982.

Top, dad teaching the “family caboose” to swim—the one who is having the least fun. Left, dad’s short-lived beard of 1981 being “experienced” by Jenny. Bottom, family photo in summer of 1982.

The Pack children as a “sandwich” in late 1980.