

Randall and Jane Pack, circa late 1960s.

Mr. Pack's parents moved to North Carolina in the early 1970s and bought a natural/health food store. The above snapshot was taken soon after purchasing the store.

Decades later, Mr. Pack inherited the store, which, with help from his sons, he expanded by adding a second much larger store on the north side of Greensboro, North Carolina.

Mr. Pack wrote numerous articles during his years with the Global Church of God. He wrote articles about the popular pagan holidays of the world for The World Ahead (above) and the Global Church News (opposite page) sent to all members of the Global Church of God.

To: [REDACTED]
Date: 2/15/98, 12:09 PM
Re: COE Agenda Note #2

Dear [REDACTED]

The following items represent a complete laundry list in my mind of topics that we need to button down over course of time and represent for more than what we can cover in two days. I misplaced this list and reserve the right to add more items to it later as they come to mind -- but there's no hurry.

1. The role of the presiding evangelist and the counsel as per church, Works and executive oversight. As you know, the bylaws are laipal with statements on this matter. I do however think a powerful case can be made in the counsel's favor even from the bylaws themselves.
2. Combining with UCG in the various ways this can happen.
3. Dress codes
4. Earrings for men
5. Hair length for men and women
6. Women writers for World Ahead or OCN.
7. Financial disclosure and debt retirement progress report -- interest paid, current budget, projected hires, pay raises, current income YTD, reserves, compliance with California skilled labor laws, etc. etc...
8. Pending idea of some to have a Global chat forum website.
9. Material Journal ????????
10. Our profile in The Journal (in Transition).
11. Divorce and Remarriage (this was on the last agenda and we did not get to it. I'm interested now in why it was on the agenda.)
12. Interracial marriage
13. Dating between baptized and unbaptized.
14. Tolerating heresy among the brethren and ministry (also: formally inviting K).
15. Five resurrections
16. Was HINA Elijah?
17. Third like
18. Update on status of [REDACTED]'s various prophetic scenarios.
19. Birthday [REDACTED] ... this all springs from where point #1 goes.
20. Bylaws
21. New r

To: [REDACTED]
Date: 2/15/98, 11:45 AM
Re: COE Agenda Note #1

Greetings [REDACTED]

I am very sorry to respond so late to your request for topics for the agenda for the upcoming meeting. As you can see I had listed for consideration by the counsel many topics from here on will change depending upon whether things become merely [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] (totally unacceptable) or decisions rendered by oversight of the counsel. So, clearly, we need to talk soon -- today. I will also be touching base with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and I spent four hours on the phone yesterday discussing the plan as it now exists. I'm ahead. However, I wish to discuss verbally some caveats. The following list reflects items I would wish the counsel to discuss in a perfect world.

Thank you for your input to [REDACTED] regarding UCG/CG combined services. Though it leaves some considerable questions that the counsel can discuss, it certainly helped and I sensed that you must have talked to [REDACTED] about our

Warm regards,
Dave

In an email sent to a fellow minister, Mr. Pack expressed his concerns regarding the watering down of doctrine and tradition in the pre-split Global. Top is a partial list of topics suggested to be covered in a Council of Elders meeting, with the bottom a cover letter.

A map of the northeastern United States area that Mr. Pack supervised as Regional Pastor in the Global Church of God. Each of eight pastorates is shown with the city that the pastor lived in designated by a black pin. Akron, Ohio, is the red dot near the center.

With sister, Debbie, and brother, Bill, at his brother's home in Bluefield, Virginia, at Thanksgiving in 2002.

Randall and Jane Pack, now an older couple in their final years together, attending a formal dance in the Church.

This is the last formal Pack family portrait. It was taken in the summer of 1994, when both sons were living in Greensboro, North Carolina. Randy is 22 at left, Robby is 20 at right, and Jennifer is 14.