

Above, with daughter, Jennifer, and soon-to-be son-in-law, Kevin Denee, on vacation in the summer of 2003 in Wisconsin Dells, Wisconsin. Middle, western United States. Below, Wisconsin Dells.

Top, the wedding of Miss Jennifer Lynn Pack to Mr. Kevin David Denee on November 16, 2003. Right, father dances with daughter on her wedding day. Bottom, the Pack-Denee wedding party, including family members from both sides. This is the last time Mr. Pack saw his brother-in-law Mr. Carl McNair, shown seated near the bottom right beside his wife.

A family photo in the Packs' home in October 2006.

These are typical pictures that could have come from virtually any activity or Sabbath service—playing with little children and socializing.

From the outset of The Restored Church of God, Mr. Pack organized several socials held annually. These are now planned and carried out in other RCG congregations.

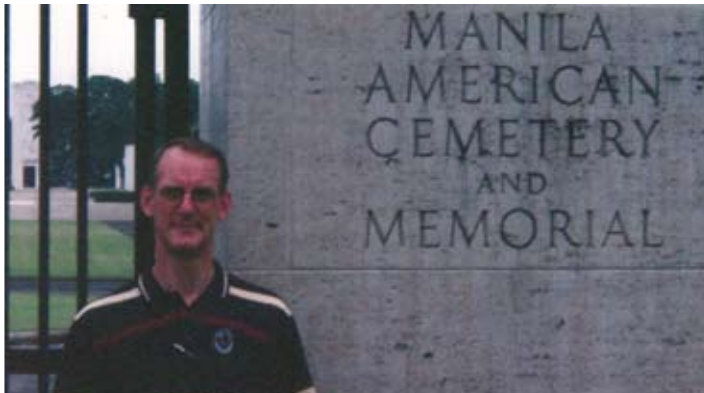

In February 2005, Mr. Pack traveled to Kenya and the U.K. Top and middle right, Windsor Castle. Middle left, Trafalgar square. Bottom, having a brief opportunity to sit with some brethren in London.

Top and middle, on the same trip, visiting and speaking to brethren in Kenya, and taking time to see a few local sites. Bottom, in 1999, Mr. Pack traveled to Manila in the Philippines.

Top, with his Aunt Marge, the widow of “Uncle Dick” (Jane Pack’s older brother), in September 2008 on a trip to Green Bay, Wisconsin. Right, returning to his parents’ North Carolina home in March 2008.

Top, Uncle Frank and Aunt Mary at a favorite picnic spot near their home in California. Middle, Frank Crowl sailing in the Pacific Ocean. Bottom, the Crowls in their extensive library. Frank Crowl was an avid student of history, especially of the American Civil War, Presidents Lincoln and Grant, as well as Generals Napoleon and Custer.

The Crows at home in Dana Point, California.